The Winner of Galliard Stakes at Morris Park To-Day.

WEATHER FINE, TRACK FAST

Well-Matched Fields and Livel Betting the Order.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, June 4. -- If there is such a thing as a drawback to a visit to Morris Park there can be but one, and that is the rather tedlous journey to reaching it. Once inside, however, it is like a haven of rest. Every object the eye reals upon has a new, clean and inviting appearance.

The weather makers are very lenient with the Morrises. Yesterday many complained that it was too warm, so a petitlod was sent to the weather bureau, and it was granted at

To-day the putrons of Morris Park are favored with weather made to order, and it could not be more perfect, from a racing point of view, aithough the gentle zephyr that sweeps through the grand stand is the least bit chilly for those who have already donned their

The card arranged by Secretary Crickmor to-lay was a very fine one, although there was but one stake event, the Galliard. The entries in the other events were so evenly matched and handicapped that it kept the public and the talent guessing as to who the winner would

As early as an hour before the borses wer called to the post for the first race there was a | each. crowd in attendance that would do honor to train which arrived at intervals of five minute deposited other loads of human freight until, when the first race was run, there was a very large attendance present.
The track was in first-class—condition and as Innes's band, as usual, enlivened the crow with stirring music which consoled the losers to some extent and made the more fortunate betters even more jubiliant.

The second race for to-morrow. June 5, in the book programme, has been deciared of and a sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward, selling allowances, at one mile, substituted.

The sport began with a five and one-half ferious dasn, and it was a hot betting affair, with La Tosca the favorite by a point ever Fairwise. Civil Service was well backed and steam third should.

closed third choice.

The others ranged from 25 to 30 to 1, and were not prayed with exception of Key West, who was albuled at in the 1-2-3 cooks.

The race was not from start to finish, with the favorite La Tosca winning in fast time rather handly from Civil Service. Key West third, The much touted Fairview was never in 1.

The second race was another good betting affair, with Mountain Deer and Hypatica affernating as favorites and Onaway a poor third choice, with the staticmen playing him for a good taing. The talent got an upset, for snowball, at b to 1, won, with Long Dance second and Kingmaker third. None of the favorites were one, two, three.

Sen-rita was an overwhelming favorite for third race, with Madstone and Isaac Lewis neck and heek for second choice, and the others at long odds.

Ma stone won in a canter, two lengths from the favorite, who was wapped out.

FIRST RACE. Sweepstakes for all ages, with $1,000 added five and a half juriongs.
